SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1903.

Should the two houses of the Legislature take time from the appropriation bills to discuss each other's expenses, there'll be enough cushion and concession to last the full sixty-day limit.

Demands for roads and bridges and other public works are daily becoming more pressing. Legislators cannot serve their constituents better than by working overtime on the appropriations.

Russia is walking in and out among the forts and principal ports of Manchuria in a way that suggests a desire to test the good will of Japan to the limit and finally make an advance which will make the ownership complete and no apologies offered.

Should hostilities between Japan and Russia reach the issue that is at least seriously threatened, Hawaii will furnish openings for small farmers of all kinds in cane fields now tilled by Japanese. A fight with Russia will be no such easy going affair as the war with China.

The Legislature that will furnish enough money to improve public grounds so that they may be parks in fact as well as in name will deserve the highest praise. Attractive parks not only make life more pleasant for residents, but are also an important item in the program of attracting tourists.

The poor old tug Eleu now comes in for its usual rough route in the Legislature. Since annexation this tug has at one time or another made more trouble than it has thus far proved itself to be worth. Even the tug advocates ought to be willing by this time to put the boat on the shelf in the interests of economy.

"We don't want no books, give us booklets," is the latest complaint from sources purportedly promoting thorough advertisement of Hawaii but in reality trying to injure every definite proposal for getting the work started. Given a booklet they would doubtless call for a pamphlet and by the same token if offered pants they would cry out for pants.

When the fire claims schedules were up to Auditor Fisher he put on an extra force and worked night and day. He finished his part of the task on time or nearly ten days ago. Then the fire claims business disappeared in the Secretary's office and has not been seen since. It would seem that a little more real strenuousness and less imitation were needed. The claimants want their money and business men demand action.

LEWIS SALE A FAILURE

The commissioner's sale of the Lewis estate was a failure. There was no bid for the lot at King and Bethel streets, area 6560 square feet, which was offered at an upset price of $28,000.

Nine lots on the Waikiki road and six lots on a reserved roadway in rear were offered, but only two of each were sold.

Charles Lewis bought lot 1, area 17,712 feet, on the Waikiki road for $250 or $150 above the upset price.

Lot 3, area 18,504 feet, offered at an upset price of $700, was sold to J. D. Lewis for $875.

Of the lower lots, D. Kalauokalani, Jr., bought one of 47,250 square feet at $600, being an advance of $250 on the upset price. Two cottages on this lot made an inducement. J. Jorgenson bought another of 72,468 feet, on which the upset price was $500, for $500.

Two old buildings in the roadway were sold together for $60 to J. D. Lewis.

By direction of W. A. Whiting, commissioner, the sale was continued for two weeks subject to order of court. There was a fair attendance, but it was a bad day for real estate. Mr. Schermerhorn of J. F. Morgan's office conducted the sale.

There is a letter by the Eastern mail at the Bulletin office for Peter McDonald.

Casimir, who was chef of the lately closed Maison Dorée in Paris, is airing his mind about the judgment of Kings at the dining table. He scoffs at Leopold of Belgium, who ordered "soup and a slice of beef," says King Edward took only the simplest dishes and that only his Majesty of Portugal knows how to eat.

DAN GROSVENOR SAYS:

"Pe-ru-na is an Excellent Spring Catarrh Remedy—I am as Well as Ever."

BOX. DAN. A. GROSVENOR, OF THE FAMOUS GROSVENOR FAMILY,
Hon. Ian A. Grosvenor, Deputy Auditor for the War Department, writes a letter written from Washington, D. C., says:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from one bottle of Peruna. One week has brought wonderful change and I am now as well as ever. Besides being one of the very best spring tonics it is an excellent catarrh remedy."

DAN. A. GROSVENOR.

In a recent letter he says:

"I consider Peruna really more meritorious than I did when I wrote to you last. I receive numerous letters from relatives and friends all over the country asking me if my certificate is genuine. I cordially ANSWER,

"YES!"—Dan. A. Grosvenor.

A County Commissioner's Letter:

Hon. John Williams, County Commissioner, of 57-West Second street, Duluth, Minn., says the following in regard to Peruna:

"As a remedy for catarrh I can thoroughly recommend Peruna. I know what it is to suffer from this terrible disease and I feel that it is my duty to speak a good word for the tonic that brought me immediate relief. Peruna cured me of a bad case of catarrh and I know it will cure any other sufferer from that disease."—John Williams.

A County Commissioner's Letter:

Hon. B. N. O'Gorman, Commissioner of Education, in a letter written at Washington, D. C., says: "My knowledge of Peruna, the national remedy, is as follows:

"I can conscientiously recommend

Peruna as a fine tonic and an around good medicine to those who are in need of a catarrh remedy. It has been recommended to me by Dr. F. E. Prouty, who has used it as a remedy particularly effective in the case of catarrh. For those who need a good catarrh medicine I know of nothing better."

For special directions everyone should read "The life of life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists at one dollar per bottle or 100 bottles for five dollars.

Those wishing direct correspondence with Dr. Hartman and can wait the necessary delay in receiving a reply should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.

Benson, Smith & Co. will supply the retail drug trade in Honolulu.

HILO EASTERN STAR.

HILO, May 8.—The Order of Eastern Star celebrated the thirteenth anniversary of its institution in Hilo last Friday night with a dance and reception at Kilohana Lodge hall. Besides the members, guests were present, making in all about sixty. The committee in charge, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Weight and Mr. E. N. Holmes, had made every arrangement for the entertainment of the company. Worthy Patron F. Souza and Worthy Matron Mrs. K. F. Mackie assisted the committee in receiving the guests. The evening was spent in dancing.

The order was established in Hilo in 1886 and has had a history of successive years of growth since, and is now in a flourishing condition. It is the intention of the members of the order to repeat these dances from time to time to better acquaint people with the social side of the organization.—Tribune.
